

WANT 1918 MEET IN RHINELANDER

Delegation Goes To Racine To Capture Next Municipal League Convention

Mayor Grant V. Clark and a party of aldermen and other city officials departed Tuesday night for Racine to attend the annual convention of the Wisconsin League of Municipalities. The Rhinelander delegation will exert every effort to secure for this city the next meeting of the league in 1918. The convention will continue three days.

To urge the cities of Wisconsin to emulate the county and state in war activities, Prof. Ford H. MacGregor, secretary of the Wisconsin League of Municipalities, has prepared a special program in which war problems will be considered at the convention. Col. Theodore Roosevelt, the headliner, Thursday evening, will be introduced by Gov. Philipp.

Friday addresses will be made by A. H. Melville, secretary of the Wisconsin Defense Council, and Martin J. Gillen, Racine, on the plan of cooperation between city and county defense councils.

A talk on Bill 290-S and on the cost of grade separation will be given by Senator Roy P. Wilcox, Eau Claire, Thursday afternoon.

Friday's program includes Prof. J. L. Gillin, Madison, on Problems of Crime and Municipal Relief Resulting from the War; J. A. Craig, Janesville, on Enforcement of the New Huber Law; Mayor Daniel H. Hoan, Milwaukee, on Municipal Markets; George J. Weigle, state dairy and food commissioner, on Municipal Regulation and Protection of the Food Supply; and A. L. Sommers, president of the Wisconsin Association of Commercial Secretaries, Sheboygan, on Intensive City Gardening.

Sight-seeing tours around Racine, a fire department exhibition, and a chicken bake on the banks of the Root river are some of the social features.

The league, now completing its nineteenth year, has but one aim—the improvement of city government in this state by placing before city officials opportunities for learning the best methods for handling the perplexing questions that confront them. It is not a reform organization nor an organization of reformers; it is not even a citizens' organization nor municipal league. These latter organizations are usually made up of business men, lawyers, doctors, educators and others associated for civic purposes and whose aim is usually to investigate and reform city government. Their work is largely critical and even destructive; too frequently they do not work in harmony or in sympathy with the public officials elected by the people to administer city affairs.

The league, on the other hand, is a league of cities; only city officials or former officials can become members. They meet in annual conferences to compare notes, to discuss common methods, to find how problems are being solved in other places.

BAR PAYS HONOR TO DEAD LAWYER

Wausau, Wis., Sept. 23.—Neal Brown was buried Sunday afternoon in Pine Grove cemetery, in a spot that he himself loved. Services were conducted on the broad lawn of the Brown home, under the trees, by the Rev. Richard Evans, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church. They were under Masonic auspices.

The bar of the state and Marathon county paid honor to the dead lawyer. Chief Justice John B. Winslow and Associate Justice M. B. Rosenberry of the state supreme court, and former Justice R. D. Barnes of the court, represented the bar before which Mr. Brown had appeared with distinction many times. Circuit Judges G. W. Burnell of Oshkosh and Byron P. Park of Stevens Point also attended.

Emerson Hough, the writer, was there as representative of the Camp fire club, to which Mr. Brown belonged. Masonic lodges from Merrill and Tomahawk were also represented.

Years ago Mr. Brown drew landscape garden plans for Pine Grove cemetery and superintended the planting of trees, building an imperishable monument to him. All the trees were chosen from Marathon county forests.

NEW SHINE ARTIST COMING

The Shine parlors of Tom Metaxas, located in the Rayworth building, have moved to the building formerly occupied by Mrs. L. Wahl Millinery. New fixtures for the parlors are expected to arrive in a week or two. Mr. Metaxas expects to open shine parlors in Rhinelander also, in the near future.—Antigo Journal.

TO FORM NIGHT SCHOOL CLASSES

Meeting Will Be Held At High School On Friday Evening

The first meeting of the Continuation school will be held at the high school building on Friday evening of this week, at seven-thirty. All young people who are out working under permits are expected to attend this session. Classes will be organized and plans made for regular meetings next week.

All persons working under permit are expected to attend the Continuation school for one or two afternoons each week. The law provides that young people fourteen to sixteen years of age shall attend this school for eight hours each week for the entire year, while those from sixteen to seventeen shall attend four hours during each week. The sessions of this school will be held in the high school building.

The director and teachers are visiting employers this week, explaining this school, and making arrangements for the release of permit people to attend. Practically all the employers in the city are planning to meet the demands of the law most cordially. It is hoped that every permit pupil will be allowed to attend regularly.

By the terms of the child labor law of the state of Wisconsin, no person under sixteen may be employed for more than eight hours per day or more than forty-eight hours per week, and where a Continuation school is conducted, he must be released to attend this school at least eight hours each week. During this year, permit pupils who are sixteen years of age will be expected to attend this school four hours a week. After September first, 1918, they will also be expected to attend eight hours.

The new law provides that all persons between the ages of fourteen and seventeen, engaged in domestic service must obtain permits and must regularly attend the day Vocational school as do other minors in all lines of employment.

Parents, employers, and others who are interested in the school are cordially invited to attend the meeting at the high school Friday evening.

WED FIFTY YEARS

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Spencer of Waupaca are guests of their daughter, Mrs. E. O. Brown, Monday was the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage and the event was quietly observed at the Brown residence.

Mr. and Mrs. Spencer are numbered among the old and prominent families of Waupaca. For many years past they have been frequent visitors in Rhinelander and have a retinue of friends here who extend congratulations on their golden wedding.

MANY HERE FORGO MEAT AND WHEAT

That Tuesdays and Wednesdays, respectively designated as "meatless and wheatless days" are being observed by the citizens of Rhinelander is indicated by the decrease in the sales of meat and white bread on these days, according to reports of local dealers.

Most people declare that it is easier to eliminate white bread from the menu than to forgo the eating of meat. There are numerous suitable substitutes for wheat products that can be consumed with relish. In fact there are many good sized families in this city that use only a small amount of wheat flour throughout the entire year. Rye is used instead, especially in bread making.

Following the proclamation issued by Magnus Swenson, state food administrator, Milwaukee hotelmen at a meeting recently adopted a resolution setting aside Tuesday and Wednesday of each week as a wheatless and meatless day, and have sent a copy of this resolution to all restaurant, lunch room and boarding house proprietors urging their co-operation in fulfilling their part. Mr. Swenson has issued this proclamation by the authority vested in him by President Wilson and it is intended to decrease the demands on the limited quantity of both these items.

It is hoped that local hotel men, lunch room and boarding house proprietors will meet soon and decide to fall into line with hotel men of the state generally, therefore aiding in the general plan of food conservation.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Emil Olson, September 23.

The Road To France

This stirring martial poem, by Daniel M. Henderson, a Marylander, was awarded first honors in the prize war poem competition conducted by the National Arts Club of New York City. Several thousand compositions were entered in the contest.

Thank God our liberating lance Goes flaming on the way to France!
To France—the trail the Gurkhas found!
To France—old England's rallying ground!
To France—the path the Russians strode!
To France—the Anzac's glory road!
To France—where our Lost Legion ran
To fight and die for God and man!
To France—with every race and breed
That hates Oppression's brutal creed!

Ah, France, how our hearts forget
The path by which came Lafayette!
How could the haze of doubt hang low Upon the road of Rochambeau?
How was it that we missed the way
Brave Joffre leads us along today!
At last, thank God! At last, we see
There is no tribal Liberty!
No beacon lighting 'just our shores,
No Freedom guarding but our doors.
The flame she kindled for our sires
Burns now in Europe's battle-fires.
The soul that led our fathers west
Turns back to free the world's oppress.

Allies, you have not called in vain;
We share your conflict and your pain.
"Old Glory," through new stains and rents, Partakes of Freedom's sacraments.
Into that hell his will creates
We drive the foe—his lusts, his hates.
Last come, we will be the last to stay.
Till Right has had her crowning day.
Replenish, comrades, from our veins
The blood the sword of despot drains,
And make our eager sacrifice
The freely rendered price
You pay to lift humanity—
You pay to make our brothers free.
See, with what proud hearts we advance
To France!

ONEIDA WINS POTATO PRIZE

For the fifth consecutive year Oneida county potatoes have taken first honors at the Wisconsin state fair, Arthur Taylor, secretary of the Oneida County Agricultural Society who was one of those in charge of the county booth at the 1917 state fair, was notified Friday that the grand potato prize had been awarded to Oneida.

Think of it, Mr. Citizen! For five years straight Oneida spuds have captured this much coveted place. Isn't this a record of which to be proud? That the best potatoes in the state are produced right in this county is a fact which carries unlimited advertising value. Other counties have tried continually to wrest the laurels from Oneida, but in vain.

One Rhinelander visitor at the state fair remarked to the New North: "Everybody in the county building stopped to admire the potato display from Oneida county. One man, who came from Maine, said that even his state, the most famous potato country in the union, was incapable of growing any better stock. They were indeed grand potatoes and it would be hard to beat them anywhere."

VILAS COUNTY FAIR IS GOOD

Henry Osborne was in Eagle River last Thursday in attendance at the second annual Vilas county fair. Mr. Osborne said the fair was beyond expectations in the matter of exhibits. The live stock display contained a large number of entries, consisting of some of the best cattle one could wish to see. The potato show was very good and in fact was recognized as the feature of the fair.

In the entertainment line there was plenty to keep the people amused. Several dances were given by a band of Indians from Sugar Camp. In the evening the Hazel M. Crawford orchestra furnished music for a well patronized dancing party. The music gave great satisfaction.

WISCONSIN "U" FOOTBALL DATES

That football games will be carried on as usual at the University of Wisconsin this fall is indicated by the 1917 schedule recently announced. The opening game will be with Beloit college instead of with Lawrence college as previously announced, and the homecoming game will be played with the University of Minnesota on Nov. 3. The last game of the season will be with Chicago on Nov. 24. Following is the schedule of games:

Beloit, at Madison, Oct. 6.
Notre Dame, at Madison, Oct. 13.
Illinois, at Urbana, Oct. 20.
Iowa, at Madison, Oct. 27.
Minnesota, at Madison, Nov. 3.
Ohio State, at Madison, Nov. 10.
Freshmen-sophomore game, Nov. 17.
Chicago, at Chicago, Nov. 24.

NOVEMBER 14 IS POTATO SHOW DAY

All Growers in Oneida County Are Urged To Make Exhibits

(By W. D. Juday)
The date for the Annual Oneida County potato show has been set for Wednesday, November 14th. With the help of the Advancement Association this annual day has been conducted in a way that has meant much to farmers, business men and in fact, to all interests of the county.

As usual a splendid list of prizes will be donated by the Rhinelander merchants for the best potatoes of the different varieties and silver cups will again be awarded the winners in the various classes.

Farmers should begin now to pick out their show potatoes and it is necessary this year to select better stock than ever before. For three years Oneida county has had the prize winning county booth at the State Potato Show and several counties this year have declared that we can not again attain this honor. But with the same splendid cooperation of every one, save as we have had heretofore, we can bring home the much coveted cup.

It is going to mean more to win this year than ever before. The State Show will be held at Madison in the large Stock Pavilion at the University grounds and will be the largest Potato Show ever held. Since the best potatoes are taken from our County Show to the State Show it behooves every man to select his very finest samples. The County Representative will be glad to come to any farm and help select and prepare any exhibit that the farmer has picked out. Don't delay a minute in starting preparations for our county show. You not only have a chance of winning a cup and other valuable prizes but at the same time you will be helping to uphold our reputation as the best potato county in the state.

Don't forget the date, Wednesday November 14th, and come with an exhibit of potatoes better than the other fellows.

REV. EVANS LOSES NEPHEW AT FRONT

Rev. Richard Evans, a former pastor of the M. E. church in Rhinelander and who for several years past has been stationed in Wausau, received the sad news Saturday of the death of his twenty-year-old nephew, Lieutenant Cowdy of Portland, Maine, who was killed August 16, in the beginning of the battle of Menin Road, still in progress on the French front.

The young man was second lieutenant of the Ninth Royal Irish Fusiliers, and received his death wounds in an engagement in which three other officers of his home regiment were killed, with many men of the four regiments of Irish Fusiliers assisting in the attack. Lieutenant Cowdy had been enlisted for one and one-half years, and fighting with his regiment in France since Christmas, taking part in the great drive of the Messines through the spring and summer. He was the only son of Rev. Evans' eldest sister, who with two daughters, survives him.

TO HEAR SPEECH BY SEC. M'ADOO

It is probable that the Oneida county council of defense will send representatives to Madison October 3, when Secretary of the Treasury W. G. McAdoo will speak there under the auspices of the Wisconsin Defense Council. Every county council of defense will have a representative at the meeting. As he will speak on the financing of war, it is said that a large number of the banks of the state will have representatives there to gain information on how the loans are to be handled. This first meeting is to be held in the afternoon. In the evening it is planned to hold a big public meeting in the Stock pavilion. While all of the arrangements have not been completed the suggested program has been put up to the secretary for his approval.

ATTEND KANSAS SCHOOL
Mr. Bulmer, the Reservation Superintendent, left Monday evening for Chicago, at which place he will put four Indian girls and one boy on board train for Haskell, Kansas, where they will take up higher work than that given by the Government School here. A number of the Indian pupils have already entered the high school at Tomahawk. Flambau Correspondent, Eagle River Review.

H. S. AND ALUMNI PLAY TIE GAME

First Gridiron Contest Of Season Results In Score Of 12 To 12

(Contributed)

The first foot ball game of the season, held Saturday at the fair ground, proved an interesting one. The struggle was between the high school eleven and the alumni, and the tie score, 12-12, proves that the result was fairly contested. It was a pleasure to see some of the old time stars, Fregner, Cain, Remo, Melroe, and Wilson, on the field, and the entire absence of roughness added to the pleasure. Some of the high school boys showed up very well; a long spectacular run by Remo netted one score, while the other touchdown was secured by smashing line plays, the ball being finally carried over by Dolan. The onlookers left much to be desired in point of members, though nothing was lacking in enthusiasm.

It would be advisable for several reasons to mow the excellent crop of hay which covers the field before another game is played. Attempts made to burn it were unsatisfactory, as the players looked like chimney sweeps after the first down. The ball and some of the smaller players were lost several times. Steinhilber being located only with great difficulty, while Bill Melroe rested in the tall grass for some minutes without being missed.

The next game will be played Saturday at Minocqua. Wausau played there last Saturday and was given the game, 2-0, on a forfeit after a dispute had arisen. The trip of the locals will be made to Minocqua by car, and the boys would be glad to see a good crowd of rooters on the side lines.

Letters received from Co. I boys indicate that they would be glad to be back in school again even though they left it with some enthusiasm. As one boy puts it, lessons in digging trenches and shooting people are worse even than lessons in English.

FORD AUTO RACES SUNDAY, SEPT. 30

Those who witnessed the Ford auto races at the recent county fair will have an opportunity to again enjoy this exciting sport next Sunday afternoon.

Will Gilligan, proprietor of the Oneida Garage, local Ford dealer, is promoting the races which will be held on the fair grounds track, beginning at 2:30. Only Ford cars owned in Rhinelander will be eligible to enter. $175 will be offered in purses. There will be three events, 25-, 5 and 10 mile races. There will also be a novelty race, a new feature which will prove amusing. Remember the program will start at 2:30. Be there early and see it all. Admission 35 cents to everybody.

S. H. & E. F. BOOK ADVERTISES CITY

The Scandinavian organization, known as the S. H. & E. F. of America, which organization has a lodge in Rhinelander, has recently published its history. This work occupies several hundred pages of quite a large volume, nicely printed on good paper, and the book is neatly and well bound. The history contains a sketch of the grand lodge, the founding of the order and its aims in general. Then follows separate history of the different local lodges and their members. Rhinelander is well represented in this work due largely to the untiring efforts of Andrew Olson, pioneer member of the order, as well as pioneer citizen of Rhinelander. Many electotypes appear in the work and several members of the local lodge have their photographs inserted with a brief life sketch. The Rhinelander local has been very active and is well represented in the Grand Lodge body. Several have attained the highest dignities of the order.

As there are lodges of the S. H. & E. F. spread over all the United States and Canada, it follows that Rhinelander, through this work and the special interest in promoting the same as shown by the members who contributed towards it, has gone down to posterity as a live town and scored another boost resounding from coast to coast, from Alaska to Mexico.

The New North congratulates Mr. Olson, as he has had his hands full in gathering the information pertaining to this city.

Mrs. Marshall of North Grandon is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Wilde.

Pneumonia Air Raider

A ruthless campaign, similar in character to the airplane raids of Prussianism, is being carried on against the people of Wisconsin by pneumonia. Partly because of Wisconsin's tuberculosis, but partly, also, because of a very real rise in the number of victims being struck down by pneumonia, this latter disease has outrun the White Plague as cause of death.

While the tuberculosis death rate has been declining in the past eight or ten years, the pneumonia death rate has changed, too. In some years, it has been only a little, in other years a great deal, but always climbing upward. During 1915 and 1916, more people died from pneumonia in Wisconsin than from any other single cause. The enormous rise in 1916, especially, has puzzled physicians and interested laymen. Yet, pneumonia is an infectious germ disease, and therefore is largely preventable.

For its spread, two conditions are necessary, the presence of the germ and the presence of an individual whose resistance is sufficiently lowered to permit the germs to make a successful attack. The latter is by far the more important requirement.

Pneumonia germs are almost always present. It is only when they find a victim whose impaired resistance makes him good soil for infection, that they work havoc.

Good rules for avoiding pneumonia are the simple rules of health. First, keep away from those who have the disease; second, furnish your body with fighting strength against the germs in case they do gain entrance. Put up a stubborn fight against careless spitting, coughing, and sneezing. Beware of predisposing conditions such as common colds, and excesses of all kinds. Hospital records show that the death rate among alcoholics is especially high; the confirmed smoker, whose nose and throat are irritated by tobacco fumes, makes relatively an easy victim.

Get plenty of rest, plenty of exercise, and, above all, plenty of fresh air. In crowded street cars or in congested, close places of any kind, pneumonia finds ideal conditions for spreading. Avoid dangerous exposure, but live in fresh air, work in fresh air, sleep in fresh air, and help reduce the pneumonia rate in 1917 and 1919.

LAW SUPPLEMENTS
The New North has a limited number of the 1917 Law Supplements, containing all the new laws enacted by the last legislature. While the supply lasts one of those supplements will be given to any adult who calls for same at this office.

EXPERIENCE THE BEST TEACHER

It is generally admitted that experience is the best teacher, but should we not make use of the experience of others as well as our own? The experience of a thousand persons is more to be depended upon than that of one individual. Many thousands of persons have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for coughs and colds with the best results, which shows it to be a thoroughly reliable preparation for those diseases. Try it, it is prompt and effectual and pleasant to take. All Dealers.

OLDER BUT STRONGER

"To be healthy at seventy prepare at forty" is sound advice, because in the strength of middle life we too often forget that the careless treatment of aches and pains undermines our strength. Keep your blood pure and rich and active with the strength-building and blood-nourishing properties of Scott's Emulsion which is a food, a tonic and a medicine to sustain your strength, alleviate rheumatism and avoid sickness. No alcohol in Scott's. Scott & Bowne, Bloomfield, N. J.

VINOL MAKES GOOD BLOOD

Positive—Convincing Proof

Many so-called remedies for anemia are only so in name. Their makers are afraid to prove their claims by telling what their medicines contain.

The only way to be honest with the people is to let them know what they are paying for. Here is the Vinol formula. When the doctor knows what a medicine contains, it ceases to be a "patent" medicine.

It Cod Liver and Beef Peptides, Iron and Manganese Peptides, Iron and Manganese Citrate, Lime and Soda Glycero-phosphates, Casearia.

Any doctor will tell you that the ingredients of Vinol, as named above, will enrich the blood and banish anemia and create strength. When the blood is pure and rich and red, the body is strong and robust.

You can prove this at our expense because your money will be returned if Vinol does not improve your health.

FEW WOMEN OF TODAY WORK BLINDLY

Used to be that daughters adhered strictly to mothers' methods of home management. They used certain baking recipes simply because they were favorites of the former generation.

Times have changed radically. Colleges and clubs have been established for the express purpose of determining just which baking methods and baking materials are best. Many domestic scientists devote their lives to research and experimental work. They are constantly testing food products. They conduct exhaustive comparative tests. They accept, and endorse only such methods and baking processes as have been found superior through scientific measurement of merit. These decisions are given wide publicity. The result is that the housewife of today produces more wholesome and perfect bakings at less cost than ever before.

In investigating the decisions handed down by pure food specialists and eminent domestic scientists it is plainly evident that the overwhelming majority employ and advocate the use of Calumet Baking Powder. Calumet has won this popularity among experts on merit alone. They show no partiality. To obtain their approval a product must possess superiority. Calumet has been granted that approval for several reasons—first because it is absolutely sure in results, never fails and next because it is perfectly pure, leaves no trace of harmful residue in foods. Then—because it produces a better grade of bakings—cakes, biscuits, etc. that are remarkably light, tender and tasty. Finally—because of Calumet's surety and moderate price it is the most economical of all Baking Powders in cost and use.

This verdict—this hearty endorsement coming from experts who have provided Calumet's excellence beyond dispute certainly indicates that Calumet gives the housewife the utmost in Baking Powder value.

NEWSY NOTES OF NEARBY TOWNS

Ironwood—Something of a sensation was created Friday morning, when but 109 of the 200 drafted men called for the second contingent reported for certification. This discrepancy was undoubtedly due to the fact that too much leniency was shown in the case of the five men who failed to report out of the first eighteen men sent. Also it demonstrates that firm steps must be taken at once to round up the slackers if the draft is not to prove a farce in this county.

New London—Employees of the Four Wheel Drive Auto company of Clintonville are exempt from draft as long as they remain at the Clintonville plant. The following is the letter received by the company from the war department: "Exempt from draft of employees of the Four Wheel Drive Auto company. You are advised that the Four Wheel Drive Auto company of Clintonville, Wis., has a contract with this department to furnish the government with 3750 motor trucks. These motor trucks are absolutely necessary for the prosecution of the war and the work thereon cannot be delayed or interrupted without direct substantial loss and detriment to the military service for which these trucks are ordered. (Signed) Henry G. Sharpe, Quartermaster General, U. S. Army, Major Quartermaster Corps."

Ashland—The Ashland Light, Power and Street Railway company has begun the construction of a $100,000 power plant at the mouth of Montreal river on the boundary line between Michigan and Wisconsin. For several weeks lugs have been carrying machinery from Ashland to the mouth of the Montreal and a construction crew left here today for the scene of operation. A 1200-horse power plant will be built and connected with the company's lines connecting Ashland, Mellen and Ironwood. A line will be built directly from Montreal river to Ashland across the Bad river reservation at a cost of $50,000. The power plants at White river and Mellen, both water power and the local steam plant at Ashland furnish light and power for the Chequamegon Bay region.

Washburn—Because of the shortage of man labor and the large increase in their business the Kenfield-Lamoureux company will soon be employing women in their crating and box factory. Women will only be used on jobs where the work is light and the working conditions will be made as pleasant as possible. The company is now having fitted up a ladies' rest room, equipped with toilet and lavatory, coat hangers, rockers, chairs and other equipment. They expect to employ a matron who will have charge of the women laborers and who will see that working conditions are fine. Women and girls over 17 years of age will be given employment.

Grand Rapids—Ed Reimer was arrested charged with having furnished liquor to Indians. After having been locked in the county jail the upper part of that structure was found to be full of smoke, and investigation showed that the man had set the mattress on the bed afire. He was taken out of this part of the jail and confined in the insane ward, and later a fire was discovered there. Both fires were extinguished without any great damage, although Reimer was nearly suffocated. He had been searched before being placed in the cell, so that it was a mystery where he got his matches. When asked why he tried to set the jail afire he merely stated that they had no business to lock him up.

MUST NOT USE RED CROSS

Because of the growing misuse of the Red Cross emblem commercially, the American Red Cross has just issued a new warning to those who may be violating the law regarding it. Its use to stimulate the sale of magazines, songs, post cards, or other articles under the guise of patriotism, is illegal.

Provisions of the law are as follows:

"It shall be unlawful for any person, corporation or association other than the American National Red Cross and its duly authorized employees and agents and the army and navy sanitary and hospital authorities of the United States, for the purpose of trade or as an advertisement to induce the sale of any article whatsoever or for any business or charitable purpose, to use within the territory of the United States or its exterior possessions the emblem of the Greek Red Cross on a white ground, or any sign or insignia made or colored in imitation therefor, or of the words, 'Red Cross' or any combination to lock him up."

DRAFTING BOYS
Lieut. Gen. S. B. M. Young advises drafting boys of from 19 to 21 years of age.
The idea of drafting boys except as a last resort is abhorrent to any one but a Kaiserist or a draft dodger. They have no vote, no voice for or against war; they owe the country little for they have received little from it. Let the burden be borne by the men who control politics and who owe a debt to the country that has furnished them opportunities.—Ladysmith Journal.

Stops were made at principal cities enroute, including a visit to the state fair.
While in Grand Rapids George saw the "Human Fly" scale an eleven story office building in 27 minutes. Thousands of people witnessed this marvelous performance.

WASH GETS TWO YEARS IN PRISON

Jury Finds Him Guilty Of Holding Up Soo Line Ticket Agent

After three hours deliberation the jury in the case of George Wash, tried in circuit court on a charge of robbery, returned a verdict of guilty at a little after eight o'clock Tuesday evening. Wash was sentenced to two years in the state penitentiary.
Wash was accused of holding up Roy White, night ticket agent at the Soo passenger depot here, five months ago. Over one hundred dollars were taken by the robber. Wash was arrested several days after the robbery. He has been in the county jail here since.
Judge H. F. Steele was appointed by Judge Reid as the defendant's attorney and District Attorney O'Melia appeared for the state. A number of witnesses were on the stand, including Roy White, Chief of Police Straub, Officers O'Brien and Shepard, Under-sheriff Crofoot and Frank Pecor. The defendant took the stand and denied all knowledge of the robbery, testifying that he was asleep in a restaurant here at the hour the crime was committed. Roy White testified he was not mistaken as to the identification of Wash and that he was the man who did the robbery. The testimony of other states' witnesses was almost equally as damaging to the defendant.

Cox Not Guilty
Jesse Cox, who was on trial in circuit court Wednesday on the charge of robbery was found not guilty. The jury was out about three hours.
Cox was arrested six weeks ago, following the hold-up of the bar keeper in the Rice saloon in Pelican Lake. Cox was charged with the crime.
The case attracted considerable attention and many witnesses were examined. Cox was defended by Judge H. F. Steele and District Attorney A. J. O'Melia was for the prosecution.
One Year For Jeffery
Monday afternoon Judge Reid sentenced Luke Jefferys to one year in Waupun prison. Jefferys, who is a young man, pleaded guilty to the charge of robbing Earl Howe's saloon near the fair grounds early in the summer. Following the crime Jefferys disappeared and was taken into custody a short time ago near Antigo.
Judge Reid demonstrated his faith in the prisoner's intention to become a better man by giving him a light sentence.

BAD WRECK ON SOO AT ATKINS

Traffic on the Soo line was badly crippled Tuesday night and practically all day Wednesday owing to a freight wreck at Atkins, twenty miles east of Rhinelander. Eleven cars loaded with steel, which comprised part of the tonnage of an east bound time freight, left the rails late Tuesday afternoon. The cars and their contents were converted into a splintered and twisted pile of debris and the track was ripped up for nearly one thousand yards.
No one was injured. The cause of the accident has not been ascertained, but may have been due to a defective wheel. There is a fine stretch of track at the place where the wreck occurred.
The division wrecker, stationed at Gladstone, was soon on the scene and men from this city also assisted in removing the wreckage. It was late Wednesday before the track was again in condition to permit the running of trains.
Freight service on the east end was at a stand still Wednesday. Passenger service was not so seriously interrupted, transfers of passengers, mail and baggage being made at the wreck.

Avoid "Movie" Eyestrain

Many persons cannot attend motion pictures because of the annoying aftereffects on the eyes. Some suffer from eyestrain and others are subject to severe headaches. The relief, in most cases, consists in perfectly-fitted glasses, according to the Popular Science Monthly. The picture may not be quite so sharp, but this is more than compensated for by the increased comfort. For persons with very sensitive eyes, a colored glass, either amber, yellowish green or amethyst, may afford immediate relief. It is also advisable for those who are liable to suffer after viewing the pictures to avoid sitting in a place where it is necessary to look upward, as the additional strain becomes very tiresome. In the majority of cases, however, if glasses are correctly fitted to a person, he or she stands a good chance of enjoying motion pictures without any attendant ill results.

The Ocean Floor

The ocean does not sink into the earth owing to the fact that there is a kind of substance at the bottom of the ocean which the water cannot penetrate, in spite of the tremendous pressure which the great body of deep water exerts. In all places where the bottom of the ocean has a covering which water can sink into it does so, but there are such a few places where this is possible, by comparison, that the amount that gets out that way is not noticeable, says the Book of Wonders. This water, if it can keep on going, will eventually reach the inside of the earth, where it is red hot, and is turned into steam.

Snakes Are Great Fasters.
Snakes, though at times they gorge themselves, are great fasters. In the French museum an anaconda twenty feet long was a very small feeder, though he gained in weight. Taken there in 1883, he had only thirty-four meals during the next five years, consisting of a small goat or a few rabbits. The interval between these meals varied from 23 to 204 days. He would not touch food unless he was in real need of it, and it was only by watching and noticing when he seemed to be uneasy that his keepers could conclude that he was hungry. During the long fast, which was in 1883, many efforts were made to tempt or force him to eat without the least success.

Exposing Family Secrets.
Eph Wiley has six daughters, and they are marrying at the rate of about one a year. Yesterday an old friend approached Eph on the subject of a little loan. "I'm very sorry I can't accommodate you, old man," said Eph in an attempt to soften his refusal, "for I'll have another son-in-law to set up in business next month."—Topeka Capital.

Sensible Rejoinder.
"Don't you think," asked the young man with the long nose, "that Miss Quickstep dresses as much like a man as possible in order to get herself talked about?" "On the supposition that she does," replied the other young man, with a frosty glitter in his eye, "I suggest that we defeat her purpose by not talking about her. Understand?"

SEVEN BECOME NEW CITIZENS

Andrew Hansley, Rhinelander. Helmar Olson, Rhinelander. John Bystrom Jr., Rhinelander. Carl Bystrom, Rhinelander. Albert Kruger, Minocqua. Adam Skowonski, Robbins. Bartoni Gurskey, Bradley.

In examining the applicants the court exercised more circumspection than on previous occasions regarding the question of loyalty, the war making this caution necessary. Expressions of opinion pertaining to the war were had from the applicants. They were also asked if they were ready to go to war for the United States if called.

WACO RESIDENTS ADOPT BADGERS

Texas City Is Showering Soldiers From Wisconsin With Favors

Camp MacArthur, Tex.—The sincere and kindly interest with which Texans are receiving the Wisconsin National guardsmen is one of the most pleasant phases of the Badger soldiers' encampment here. With true southern hospitality the people of Waco have taken the thousands of strangers into their midst and treated them as though they were their own sons and brothers. The southerners have gone even more than half way in building up a lasting friendship. Whenever the men in olive drab appear they are accosted in friendly conversation by the Texans, who invariably inquire, "Where's y' all from?" And if the answer is "Wisconsin" the inquirers seem pleased.

A soldier need never feel lonely some here. On the street, in the stores, in vehicles, in theaters, in the parks or at camp, the southern civilians seem to consider it their patriotic duty to speak to "the boys," and help make them feel at home. A soldier is never passed by an automobile that has an empty seat; he is invariably invited to ride.

It cost Waco $90,000 to encourage the location of the camp here, but Waco people do not regret the outlay. They are smiling, and expressing the hope that the camp will be made permanent. They like the soldiers.

Civilians show the uniformed men every form of courtesy—so much, in fact, that the northern boys often feel uncomfortable under it. They are accustomed to having people open doors for them, let them precede through the opening, let them be waited upon first in stores, and be given the best seats at theaters and in churches. The Badger soldiers feel overwhelmed.

The churches are making special efforts to please the soldiers. Receptions, parties and entertainments are held almost nightly. After the entertainments, and after church services, automobiles are furnished to take the men back to camp. Patriotic citizens appear at camp Sunday mornings, and take the soldiers to whatever church they wish.

Lodges, clubs and other organizations hold special entertainments for the newcomers, and even department stores maintain special waiting and rest rooms. Barbers have raised the price of haircuts and shaves to civilians at night, that the soldiers may be waited on. No increase in prices is made to soldiers.

FOREST REGIMENT WANTS RECRUITS

More enlistments are wanted for the 20th regiment of engineers, which is now being recruited. This regiment will probably depart for France within a month.

The first regiment, 10th engineers of which Russell Didier of this city, is a member, is in all possibility in France.

In regard to the 10th engineers, F. B. Moody, listing officer for Wisconsin, says: "The first regiment, 10th engineers, are undoubtedly now in France. I have just talked with a man who saw the regiment in training in Washington and he states it is a fine body of men and that they were all very enthusiastic for service overseas. They are fully equipped with army clothing, fully armed, and have been supplied with heavy olive drab mackinaws and heavy woods boots, which make them look like a real lumber jack outfit."

Anyone desiring to become a member of the forest regiment can get particulars from Postmaster Matt Stapleton of this city.

MEL SOME FARMER

Mel Sweet's friends are of the opinion that when it comes to farming he doesn't need pointers from anyone. Wednesday Mr. Sweet presented to this office one of the choicest assortments of potatoes, cabbage, rutabagas and carrots, seen here in many a day. No larger and finer vegetables are produced anywhere. They were prize winners at both the Oneida county and Wisconsin state fairs. One of the potatoes alone would almost comprise a meal for two people. The cabbages, rutabagas and carrots were giants in size and sound all the way through. The editor will enjoy several boiled dinners from Mr. Sweet's gift.

ELLIS-HUNN

The wedding of Miss Margaret Ellis and Charles Hunn was performed by Father W. A. Beaudette Saturday morning at St. Mary's church.

Following the ceremony the young couple departed on a trip to the southern part of the state. They will make their home in Racine. Their many friends proffer congratulations.

BIG DRIVE FOR SOLDIERS' BOOKS

President Wilson is one of the first donors to the fund of $1,000,000 to provide the soldier boys with reading matter, which will inform them or inspire them or refresh them on cantonment, trench or hospital.

All over the country it is expected money will be willingly given, even at some personal sacrifice, to provide this comfort in army life. The closing of places of resort within a five mile zone makes necessary other provision for leisure hours. The Commission on Training Camp Activities, appointed by President Wilson, is providing for various forms of amusement, such as soldiers' chorus, lectures, vaudeville, plays, motion pictures, artists' recitals, athletics, and other diversions. Recognition of the fact that a good book drives away home sickness, the Commission has asked the American Library Association to undertake the work of erecting a library building at each cantonment, to stock it with books and to provide trained librarians to administer it, using the Y. M. C. A. huts and the Knights of Columbus buildings as deposit stations. The most recent magazines, newspapers and works on military engineering, aviation, trench warfare, French dictionaries, submarines, histories, biographies and travel in the war, ring countries will be purchased for use in the cantonments.

Contributions of money may be made through local libraries or in lieu of such should be sent to John H. Puelicher, Treasurer, Marshall H. Hisey Bank, Milwaukee. Mr. Charles E. McLeneghan, librarian of the Milwaukee Public Library is the State Director and Miss Lullie E. Stearns is the field representative for the Wisconsin Library Commission.

DIPHTHERIA AT JEFFRIS

A rumor of a case of diphtheria at Jeffris was the cause of an investigation by Miss Mead. With the necessary promptness and energy, riding nearly seventy miles in a day, she took the initiative. She found that the afflicted child had been taken to the hospital at Rhinelander and was in a serious condition. Not being able to locate our own district health officer at Wausau, she secured the services of one from Rhinelander and had all the school pupils examined. Another well developed case of diphtheria was discovered and the members of the family immediately taken out of the school rooms. The sputum of each individual is to be examined and should any disease germs be found, the pupil will be properly isolated.—Merrill Daily Herald.

HAS THREE SONS IN U. S. SERVICE

Our former City Clerk, now Assistant State Manager for the Fraternal Reserve Association, Gust Swedberg, has certainly contributed his little bit towards the fighting machinery of Uncle Sam. His oldest son has entered in one of our western states, the second son Clarence is corporal in Co. I, now stationed at Waco, Texas, and anxiously awaiting the order to go across the pond, and his third son Carl, has enlisted in the U. S. Navy and is at present at the Great Lakes Training Station at Illinois.

NORTH CRANDON

(From Northern Citizen)
Mail Carrier Frank L. Harris is taking his annual vacation of two weeks and temporary carrier, Wm.
M. Schultz, is in charge of the rural route during his absence.

The local farmers who recently formed a threshing machine company received their Junior Red River Special separator yesterday.
Their new Case engine arrived last week.

This week $33,700 was allowed the Grange National Farm Loan Association of North Crandon on applications of its members by the Federal Land Bank of St. Paul, subject to approval of titles.

Billing Anderson left Madison
last week for Washington, D. C., where he will be working the next three months for Professor B. H.
Hubbard of the Department of Agricultural Economics at the University of Wisconsin.

A vacation of two weeks, beginning October 1st has been practically decided upon by the local school board to enable school children to help pick up potatoes. A good many feel that this plan would be a great help to the farmers and the school as well, as about half of the children would be kept out most of that time on account of the shortage of labor.

At a contest held in the auditorium of the Crandon high school
Edna Chafin of North Crandon received first prize for the best copy of written work under rules of the Palmer penmanship system. Her copy was posted in the door of the educational department building at the fair grounds after the contest and brought forth a great deal of praise and favorable comment. She is to be complimented.

THE BEST TEST

Is the Test of Time
Years ago this Rhinelander resident told of good results from using Doan's Kidney Pills. Now S. D. Nelson, grocer, of 204 E. King St., confirms the former statement—says there has been no return of the trouble. Can Rhinelander people ask for more convincing testimony?

Mr. Nelson says: "I had pains in the small of my back, which were caused by weak kidneys. It was hard for me to stoop or lift and I couldn't bring any strain on my back. Several boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills rid me of these ailments."

A PERMANENT CURE
OVER TWO YEARS LATER Mr.

that the cure Doan's Kidney Pills made has been permanent."

ROAD INSPECTION TRIP PLEASANT AND PROFITABLE.

(By one of the party)

Nearly the entire county board, several other county officials, two representatives of the city government, and members of the Rhinelander Advancement Association in company with Commissioner Frank Parker made an inspection trip by automobile last week inspecting the roads in Oneida, Vilas, Iron and Forest counties, Wisconsin, and Gogebic county Michigan. Those composing the party were: Chairman
Ira Smith, Supervisors Baker, Russ, Dunn, Barlow, Abbey, and Olson, of this city; Chairman Gross of Crescent, Gilley of Pelican, Woodzicka of Tomahawk Lake, Mentink of Little Rice, Warner of Woodboro, Rev.
new of Woodruff, Rogers of Minocqua, Meyer of Monico, LeClaire of Tripoli, Johnson of Piehl, Swartz of Hazelhurst, Bernstein of Pine Lake, Kushman of Enterprise, Binkley of Three Lakes and members of the Road and Bridge Committee, Wm. Olson of Pelican and Chris Olson of Woodruff, Dist. Attorney A.
J. O'Melia and County Clerk Ver-age, County Road Commissioner
Parker, Mayor Clark and Street
Commissioner Guilday of the city, E. W. Forbes, Ed. Markham, and F. W. Meen representing the Advancement Association. The party left Rhinelander Wednesday morning soon after seven o'clock going out over the Cassian road to Har-shaw, thence to Hazelhurst, Minocqua, Woodruff, then to Spider Lake Resort (formerly Buck's Resort) for dinner. At Woodruff the party were met by Joe Nemich, road commissioner of Vilas county, who piloted them over a new stretch of road to Spider Lake. From Spider Lake we went to Hurley, passing through Manitowish and Mercer enroute, the road commissioner of Iron county accompanying us most of the way thru Iron county. The road from Spider Lake to Manitowish is poor, but somewhat better between Manitowish and Mercer.
After leaving Mercer with the exception of a few miles at the beginning of this lap of the journey we found a very fine road, well made and gravelled. After a short stop at Hurley we passed on to Ironwood, Michigan. Here the delegation was met by representatives of the Ironwood Commercial Club and piloted around the city where the streets were inspected. Ironwood has several miles of macadam streets, probably originally water-bound macadam, but recently repaired and rebuilt with tarvia as a binder.

After inspecting the streets of Ironwood we were piloted over a six-mile stretch of road that is being rebuilt with crushed rock and tarvia to Bessemer. The delegation left their cars and spent some time watching the road crew applying the tarvia. Mayor Clark and Street Commissioner Guilday were especially interested in this work, gaining information that will aid them in repairing the macadam streets in Rhinelander. It was after five o'clock in the afternoon when we left Bessemer for Watersmeet, a distance of about sixty miles. This was the longest stretch of excellent road passed over on the entire trip.
We were informed that this road cost nearly five thousand two hundred dollars per mile to build, and the cost of maintenance is about one thousand dollars per mile annually. Spending the night at Watersmeet we resumed our journey
the following morning passing over into Wisconsin at State Line, inspecting the roads in the eastern part of Vilas county, some of which were poor and some very good, passing through Conover, Eagle River and Three Lakes, Hiles, North Crandon
and Crandon, where we were guests of the Commercial Club of Crandon at luncheon. Nowhere on the trip did we receive more hospitable treatment than at Crandon. The last lap of the journey was made Thursday afternoon from Crandon to Rhinelander via Jennings, Pelican Lake, and Monico. The road between Pelican Lake and Monico is in the process of construction, and will be a fine piece of road when finished. However, on account of the condition and lay of the territory thru which it passes it cannot but be expensive. To sum up, the writer gained the following impressions of the cost of country roads: In a comparatively level country, where the timber is not heavy, and there are no swamps to fill, a dirt road may be constructed at a comparatively low cost. Such a country is to be found this side of Hazel-hurst in our county; the same is true all the way from Woodruff to Spider Lake. Here Vilas county has constructed a long stretch of road, which when it becomes settled will be excellent. I do not know what this road cost per mile but it must have been comparatively low, as there is very little filling, no swamps, little heavy timber, with the ground nearly level, and the soil of such a character as to make a fairly good dirt road, so that no graveling is required.

We found about the same conditions in the eastern part of Vilas county, with the exception that the soil is sandy, making it necessary to gravel the roads. Iron county is like Oneida county, but there are few swamps to fill and the soil is heavy. We found some very fine roads in Forest county, especially in the vicinity of Hiles. In that region they have a soil that makes the best type of dirt roads, requiring no graveling, with practically no swamps to fill. It is the impression of the writer that it is unsafe to judge of the efficiency or inefficiency of the management of road construction in any county by comparing the cost per mile in different counties. The conditions vary so much that any conclusions arrived at by such comparison will be absolutely unfair and untrustworthy.

Bridges, culverts, filling and draining of swamps, cutting down grades are all expensive items and must be reckoned with in any estimate of the legitimate cost of road construction.

We have neglected to mention that the Ironwood Commercial Club, expecting us to spend the night there Wednesday, had planned to entertain us, but Commissioner Parker felt that we should adhere strictly to our schedule.
Parker said afterwards, "I knew the hospitality of the Ironwood fellows, and had we accepted their invitation we would not have got to bed before morning."

There was no serious mishaps on the journey, though several very remarkable "stunts" were "pulled off," or at least attempted. Fred Meen with his Winton "Six" in an effort to pass Forbes with his Apperson "Jackrabbit" developed such speed that he couldn't make the turn near Gogebic station, and before he could come to a standstill he had reached the famous Gogebic Hotel on Gogebic Lake, five miles off his road. This extra ten miles delayed Fred in getting into Waters-meet. However, Fred claimed that he would have passed Ed. Forbes had Ed. Markham not had an attack of "cold feet" when he reached the 47-mile an hour mark, and begged him to slow down. We cannot vouch for the truth of this, but we do know that Forbes developed some speed between Bessemer and Watersmeet, for when the rest of us reached that town we found that he had been there long enough to eat his supper, and was just coming out of the dining room. Another "stunt" was pulled off by Russell
Abbey, who drove a Maxwell car.
He made the run from Rhinelander to Woodruff on a gallon and a half of gasoline. This so "puffed" Russ up that on the home stretch he was confident that he could run from Monico to Rhinelander without gasoline. It went all right till he came near Malvern, when his engine began to wheeze, and soon stopped. Abbey shook his head and said, "Boys, it's no use." Some one in the party said, "s'pose you mean it's no use trying to run a gasoline engine on 'hot air.' Russell made no reply, but 'looked daggers.'"

At O'Melia found travelling by automobile slow, and took the fish train at Watersmeet for Rhinelander.
er. Mayor Clark proved himself a fairly good "sport" on the trip. We have reliable information that on the two days' trip he imbibed two glasses of soda water and consumed at least three sticks of gum. A rather unusual thing happened to Ed. Markham and Fred Meen at the hotel at Watersmeet. At first it was difficult to account for, but when later it was discovered that Fred Annen, one of Rhinelander's genial travelling men, was registered at the hotel the whole matter was clear. It seems that Annen got hold of a large bottle of cheap perfume somewhere (the Lord knows where) and stealing into Messrs. Markham and Meen's room, and opening their travelling bags, emptied the contents of the bottle of perfume "fifty-fifty" in each bag. The liquid was readily absorbed by two pairs of pajamas. That night Markham and Meen dreamed that they were in attendance at a grand ball given in honor of the Queen of Sheba.

AROUND THE CIRCLE

The musical hum of the threshing machine is once more heard on the flats and the farmers are kept busy in exchanging work with their neighbors. The threshing is being rushed through while the fine weather lasts.

Prof. H. A. Reynolds gave one of his performances at the town hall in Woodboro Sunday evening to a fairly good house, considering the time he had to advertise same and all went away happy.

C. L. Walters and family have moved off their farm this week and into the city.

Potato digging time is here and the way the "spuds" are being turned out is a caution. The crop seems to be much better than was at first expected considering the heavy frosts of late and the price also seems to be fairly satisfactory.

Steve Kettner Sr. has taken a contract to improve the highway from the city via the old Woodboro road by removing rocks and widening same.

John Murdie, and daughter, Mrs. Ralph Dean of Royalton, are spending a couple of weeks with friends here at present among which are the families of our Rural Carrier Easton, who is a nephew, and also with Fred and Ed, and Ed, Ricker who are old friends and neighbors. Ma. Murdie is an old resident of Waupaca county, having made that place his residence since 1860 and he is also an old war veteran and was one of the first who answered Lincoln's call for volunteers to set the negroes of the south free.

Mrs. Willis Moore spent a few days in the city the guest of Mrs. W. E. Brown on Fredrick street.

On account of insufficient help the two new school houses in the town of Woodboro are progressing rather slowly. Tom Dunn, who has the contract, does not seem to be able to procure the necessary help.

Miss Geneva Murphy is spending a few weeks with her parents at Hat Rapids.

Frank McLaughlin, Albert Radka, and John J. Hacker seem to be rather "leery" of the elements and have equipped their farm buildings with lightning rods recently.

John McElrone expects to move back into the city with his family this fall where they will occupy their residence on Dorr Ave.

Frank Fisher has commenced the erection of a new house upon his farm in the town of Woodboro; he is at present constructing the basement to same, which will be completed in time to receive his fall crop of potatoes.

J. O. Davis is having about 20 acres brushed and cleared which he expects to have ready for crops next spring. Joe is getting there with both feet this fall and will have a fine farm in the very near future.

Mr. and Mrs. P. N. Davis, and little Robert, drove to the city the latter part of last week.

Mrs. W. B. Ames is visiting relatives in Milwaukee this week, where she also expects to meet Harry Bowles, who is in the Great Lakes training station. He expects to leave there soon for sea service. Harry, who is Mrs. Ames' brother, enlisted from Minnesota where he has been for the last four years.

LAND CLEARING CREW BUSY HERE

Many People Witness Demonstrations At The Crofoot
Farm

People who have visited the field where the Land Clearing Special crew is now operating have been greatly surprised at the manner in which the stumps have been rolled out in the last few days. Without doubt, this is the greatest work of its kind which has ever been attempted in this part of the country. This year the work is being conducted on a more extensive basis than last year. It is under the direction of Prof. F. M. White with L. F. Livingston as field foreman. The fore part of the week is devoted largely to the securing of data relative to the cost of land clearing. As there is very little reliable information to be had on this subject, this work is given the most careful attention. Later on this information will be published by the College of Agriculture in Bulletin form. As the itinerary of the Land Clearing Special includes stops in fourteen counties in the northern part of the state, this information should be very valuable to those interested in the development of northern Wisconsin. During the latter part of the week the work is largely demonstrational and it is then that the visitor will receive the greatest attention. Nevertheless, visitors are at all times welcome. It is hoped that the crowds in attendance will be as large as those present last year. Friday will be the big demonstration day.

One machine which was not demonstrated last year is the "Steel Giant" stump puller manufactured by the LaPlant, Choate Mfg. Co. of Cedar Rapids, Iowa. Mr. Wm. E. Raven, who has charge of this machine, is a man who has devoted a great deal of his time to the subject of land clearing and is thoroughly acquainted with the settler's problems. His manipulation of the machine will be found very instructive. Mr. R. E. Choate, one of the manufacturers, will be on the field in person.

Those who visited last year's demonstration will remember the Kirstin Stump Puller which attracted considerable attention. This year Mr. Arthur Schwantes has this machine in charge and has proven himself quite expert in the handling of it. Visitors will consider time spent in watching this crew at work as time well invested.

The work of the DuPont dynamite crew under the direction of Mr. Alfred Mathewson is sure to attract considerable attention. Mr. Mathewson was with the Land Clearing Special at Rhinelander last year. As an expert in the application of dynamite to agriculture he has had field experience in many parts of the country. The electric method of blasting is used exclusively by the dynamite crew. The visitor can easily see for himself that this is the safest, easiest, cheapest, and most practical method of handling dynamite. On Friday afternoon these men will demonstrate the best method of doing away with bowlders. Ditching by means of dynamite is something which should prove especially interesting to the people of this county. This will also be demonstrated on Friday afternoon.

What is to be done with these monstrous stumps after pulling can well be explained by Mr. Lambert with the aid of his Cornish Home, made later. This is a simple but very efficient piling device which can be built by any farmer with the aid of blue prints which can be secured free from the College of Agriculture at Madison. This piler has other uses on the farm besides the piling of stumps and logs; such as stacking wheat and hay. The iron parts for this piler can be secured from several stump puller companies. The Wisconsin Piler designed by Messrs. R. E. Choate and L. F. Livingston is not yet through the experimental stage. It is an outgrowth of this year's work. Though the designers still have several changes to make, this machine does very satisfactory work. Another outgrowth of this year's experimental work is a piler operated by a gas engine. This piling device is similar to those used in piling large stumps on the Pacific coast. It was designated by L. F. Livingston who has had considerable experience in land clearing operations in the state of Washington.

The following companies are this year cooperating with the State: Chicago, Milwaukee, & St. Paul Ry.; Minneapolis, St. Paul, & Sault Ste.

Marie Ry.; Chicago & Northwestern Ry.; Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis, Ry.; Chicago Ry.; E. L. DuPont de Nemours Co., Wilmington, Del.; A. J. Kirstin Co., Escanaba, Mich.; LaPlant, Choate Mfg. Co., Cedar Rapids, Iowa; Merrill Iron Works, Merrill, Wis.

SWEDEN.

The autopsy on King Karl XII, Sweden's warrior king, killed in battle almost 200 years ago, to determine whether the shot through the temple, which caused his death, came from enemy lines or from an assassin among his own men, has just been made in an effort to solve one of the mysteries of history. If the bullet entered the right temple it would indicate that it came from Fredrikshald fortress, Norway, before which the king's forces lay entrenched, while a shot from the opposite direction would show that it was fired by a traitor in his own ranks. The scientists who are conducting the investigation, have not yet announced their conclusions, and will not until they have made an effort to fit together the pieces of bone taken from the wound, but the indications are that the bullet entered the right temple and came, therefore, from the enemy. The king's body was examined in the old Knight's church in Stockholm, where it lay in a simple coffin. It was covered with a linen shroud with the arms at the sides, the fingers meeting across the waist, the hands incased in faded yellow gloves. On the head was a laurel wreath placed there in January, 1719, when he was buried. Those who viewed the dead king were struck by his masterful countenance, still bearing through all the years the look of a leader of men. The wound, covered by patches of linen, was found to consist of a cleft in the skull beginning at the left corner of the left eye and extending at an angle of about 45 degrees upward to the right for about three inches. A triangular piece of bone, loosened by the bullet, was still held in place by the skin. It was marked by a deep depression. The King entered the trenches the evening of December 11, 1718, and went to a point opposite where the Danes had a battery. With him were the engineer who had planned the trenches and Siquier, the king's French aide de camp. As Karl lay on the parapet of the trench, his head and shoulders exposed, an enemy cannon fired a load of grape-shot and the king fell dead. No question that a grape-shot was the cause of his death arose until a year later, when Siquier, while in a delirium of fever, said that he had murdered the king. When he recovered he was horrified at his own ravings, and denied until his death that he had killed the king. He died in poverty. Voltaire, who investigated the affair, reached the conclusion that the fatal shot could not have been fired by Siquier. The murder theory, however, once started, has persisted down to the present time.

Demand of the Swedish people that their government "take immediate measures to convince the world that the Swedish people are strictly neutral," was voiced in a monster mass meeting at Stockholm. Not all the thousands in sympathy with such a public move were able to press into the auditorium where the meeting was held. The Socialist Minister Branting addressed a great overflow meeting in a field outside the city. A banner bore the motto "Down With Secret Diplomacy." Other banners indicated the parade might be interpreted as a peace demonstration as well as an election procession.

Scandinavian representatives at Washington, particularly the Swedish, pleaded that the new prohibition on wheat export will bring their nations to the brink of starvation. The Swedish representatives declared their nation will be the first to feel the pinch of famine. The Swedish population, according to Axel Robert Nordvall, delegate to the United States, now gets only seven ounces of rye or wheat daily, the smallest ration in Europe. "Sweden's grain crop this year," he said, "will be only two-thirds normal. We will need 12,000,000 bushels for bread, and it is impossible to cut our rations further."

Discovery that wire nails in a consignment for Sweden were covered with lead caps caused the custom authorities at New York to hold up a shipment of 300 cases of the nails. It was said there was enough lead on each nail for manufacture of a rifle bullet and that the application for shipping license contained no mention of lead.

NORWAY.

Two big bombs of German manufacture have been found at Narvik, northern Norway. They were wrapped in a Swedish newspaper dated August 4, and were incased in canvas bags. The bombs are similar to those sent some time ago from Germany to Christiania and found in possession of Baron Rantenfels, a German courier, and which it was said were to be used in Finland. Rantenfels at one time had helpers operating at Narvik.

The disclosures recently made of the German spy system in Norway explain why such an unusually large number of Norwegian vessels has been trapped by undersea boats as well as the trackless disappearance of so many steamers and sailing craft. Maritime spies in Norwegian ports have been keeping the submarines constantly informed as to where and when to find their prey, while other spies have made a specialty of placing infernal machines on board ships ready to leave port, to make their destruction certain even if they should succeed in eluding a waiting submarine. The spy system in Norway and the other Scandinavian countries appears to have been organized in two distinct branches—a maritime intelligence bureau and an infernal machine bureau. Their work was so successful that general suspicion and growing apprehension were aroused in Norway, especially when so many Norwegian vessels were attacked by submarines on the edge of the territorial waters. Official vigilance was redoubled, and at last the German spy gang in Bergen was detected and as many members as were caught were convicted. But other spies evidently kept the work going and now three of these have been seized. Undoubtedly many more are still in full activity.

Consul Maurice P. Dunlap, reporting from Stavanger, Norway, says business relations between the United States and Norway will be aided by the new Norwegian cannery's export and import office, called "Norcaners (Ltd.)," the head Norwegian office of which will be located in Stavanger. The Norwegian cannery's office was formerly interested in the sale of Norwegian goods in America, but now the capital has been enlarged, there being a paid-in capital of $270,000, and the import side is to become an important factor. The project is not organized to deal with war conditions, but for the establishment of permanent business relations. The manager states that, in his opinion, America must play a much bigger role in the Norwegian commercial relations than it did before the European war. Norcaners (Ltd.) will be interested in the American output of all packing materials, as tin and tomato puree, for use in the canning fish industry. Connections also are being sought in such foodstuff lines as flour, oleo oil, lard and dried and canned fruit from California. The headquarters for Norcaners (Ltd.) in America will be Chicago, with branch offices in New York, San Francisco and other places.

A correspondent of a rural paper makes the following contribution to the discussion of the subject, "City and Country Life." "Many a man who is serving as a functionary in a city would have been ten times better off if he had remained in the country as an independent or a tenant farmer. Even a tenant farmer usually has two or three cows, and he does not need to stint on milk, almost counting the drops used. And he has potatoes. When he is to cook potatoes he does not need to put them on the scales and hold two cents in his hand for every pound that he wants. Every year he butchers some animals. An egg will be laid now and then. When he wants to cook his coffee he does not need to count the bits of wood four times. For years people kept pouring into the cities from the country. They did not even take time to look back. Many, many people are now not only looking back, but they would be glad to go back if they had a fair chance."

More than one-third of Norway's commercial fleet has been destroyed by Germany and it is indicated if the present situation continues long the remainder will be sent to the bottom, according to Dr. Bridtjof Nansen of the Norwegian mission now in this country. He was one of the principal speakers at a recent session of the National Conference of the World's Food Supply being held in Philadelphia under the auspices of the American Academy of Political and Social Science. "Our shipping between Great Britain and her allies was not considered with friendly eyes by the Germans," said Doctor Nansen, "and their U-boat warfare has to a great extent been directed against our shipping and our losses have therefore been heavier than those of any other neutral nation and I believe also greater than the losses of this country until now."

The budget committee of the storthing proposes to authorize the Norwegian government to contract a new loan of $21,440,000. The committee reports that the Norwegian banks have contracted total loans of $50,400,000 to foreign governments, and considers that the time has come when the government should restrict foreign loans, for the state, as well as the communes, is forced to contract important loans in the country.

DENMARK.

A few years ago about 1,000 reindeer were imported from Sweden and Norway and let loose on Danish heaths, or waste land. At first it was claimed that the animals would thrive, and that reindeer could be raised to advantage in Denmark. Now it is admitted that the experiment has proved a complete failure. Only 150 animals now remain. They cannot thrive on the grass growing on the heaths of Denmark. It is said that $20,000 was sunk in the enterprise.

NICK & URBANK.

WILL NOT FORCE ALIENS TO SERVE

Aliens will not be compelled to enter the military service of the United States according to a letter just received from Governor E. L. Phillips by Dr. H. L. Garner, member of the western district exemption board. The letter reads as follows:

"It is not the wish of the Provost Marshal General that any aliens shall be forced into the military service of the United States. If any want to go willingly, they should be provided this opportunity. But an alien who reads and understands English will have no excuse for not availing himself of the opportunity provided by the selective service law to present to the proper local board the information of his status as an alien. Such an alien particularly who neglects the notice of the local board that he has been certified to the District Board and neglects the notice of the District Board that he has been certified to the Adjutant General and waits until he has been actually called into the military service and scheduled for entrainment has hardly any reasonable objection to the procedure. He should be advised to take up his case with the proper representative of his government so that any injustice may be corrected through the proper channel later."

"Where an alien is illiterate or ignorant and has been in the country only a short time, you should use your discretion before actually ordering him into the service. Aliens who are placed in the national army through failure to take advantage of the generous opportunity of the law and the flexible administration by local boards who are willing to hear cases until the last moment may be advised to take up the case with the proper representative of their government so that if there is any real injustice it may be corrected through the proper channel."

WISCONSIN IS AN AUTO STATE

Wisconsin now stands in sixth place in the per capita ownership of automobiles among the states of the union, with one automobile to every fifteen persons, Iowa leads with one automobile to every nine persons. Wisconsin has 160,000 motor driven vehicles excluding motorcycles against 115,000 licenses issued during the whole of last year, an increase of 40 per cent.

Indications are that 162,000 individual motor licenses will be issued this year, of dealers licenses 2,680 and motorcycles licenses 7,000. Figures are taken from advanced sheets of Good Roads for Wisconsin, the official organ of the Good Roads Association of Wisconsin. They indicate that the war has not deterred people from purchasing automobiles. This is clearly shown by the fact that in 1915, 93,000 motor vehicle licenses were issued and in 1916, 115,000, an increase of 22,000 or 24 per cent. The figures for motorcycles are not included there in. Assuming 165,000 licenses issued this year this will mean an increase of 40,000 cars, or 12 per cent over last year, a remarkable showing.

The United States government estimates of the population of the state of Wisconsin, made on Jan. 1, 1916, was 2,500,000. Allowing for the normal increase since then it means that there is one automobile for every fifteen persons in the state. It means more than that—that Wisconsin is looming up among the foremost states in its per capita of automobile ownership.

FOURNIER "STUNG" BY FAKE CAPTAIN

Crook Makes "Impression" At Expense Of Three Lakes Resort Man

The sweet young things who spend every summer at Fournier's camp, Three-Lakes, Wis., just adored "Captain" Stanley M. Hart. He had such pleasing manners and told such thrilling tales of his valorous adventures in the Philippines and of his part in the punitive expedition in Mexico.

It made their hearts flutter when he came on the veranda that day and with a voice trembling with emotion announced that the War Department had ordered him to leave the next Monday to join his command in France.

"Pa" Fournier, who conducts the camp, was never happier than that day, for he came from France and he was glad to shake the hand of the man who was going to whip the boches. But all that was before "Pa" deposited the $500 check which "Captain" Hart gave in payment for eight weeks' rental of a cabin and his board.

The bank sent back the check marked "no account". Fournier was surprised. He never heard of an army officer doing such a thing. He began to doubt his genuineness. That seemed almost impossible. Had not the "captain" given innumerable lectures in the dance hall of the hotel on "Barrage Fire," "My Acquaintance With General Pershing" and "My Experiences in the Philippines?"

"Pa" Fournier heard the captain say he would stop in Chicago for a few days, and he followed.

Here he found Captain W. K. Evans, intelligence officer of the central department. An inspection of the army register failed to reveal any Captain Stanley Hart, so city police were sent to find the impostor.

They located him at the Great Northern Hotel, and when arraigned before United States Commissioner Foote he waived examination and was held for the grand jury.

"It is true I'm not a captain," said Hart, "but I thought the girls up at the lake would like me better if I posed as an army officer and I do like to make an impression."—Chicago Herald.

A number of Mrs. I. Helgeson's lady friends gathered at her home Monday to help celebrate her birthday. A very enjoyable time was had.

HELPS CONSERVE MEAT SUPPLY

The Northwestern railroad has started a movement for the conservation of the nation's livestock by preventing the killing of cattle, horses, hogs and sheep by the railroad trains. The campaign is to be aided by owners of stock, township officers and employees of the company.

In a bulletin issued under the title of "Conserve the Livestock of the Nation," the following points are brought out:

Do you know that thousands of horses, mules, cattle, hogs and sheep are killed annually by railway trains in this country, and that this economic waste of approximating many millions of dollars can be reduced.

The thousands of horses and mules that are killed every year would fill the artillery requirements of many regiments, and the thousands of cattle, hogs and sheep that are killed every year would provide meat for thousands of soldiers.

Anyone who aids in preventing the loss of even one animal serves his country patriotically and effectively.

This economic waste can be reduced by owners of stock keeping their animals in fenced enclosures and not permitting their stock to roam at large on railroad right-of-way.

Town officers passing ordinances prohibiting the practice of permitting stock to roam at large.

Superintendents, roadmasters and section men making a personal appeal to the owners of stock to keep their animals in fenced enclosures.

Engineers using every precaution within their power to avoid striking stock and never failing to report stock seen on right-of-way.

Section men driving stock off right-of-way, keeping farm gates closed, and fences and cattle guards in good repair; giving preference to locations where liabilities of stock getting on right-of-way is greatest.

Everyone making a persistent, personal effort to bring about desired results.

The co-operation of all concerned will be thoroughly appreciated.

ARRESTS SOLDIER

Acting on instructions from Camp Douglas officers Sheriff Hans Rodd arrested Private Carl Hary in this city Saturday. Hary, it seems, came to Rhinelander to get married and failed to return to camp at the expiration of his furlough.

Sheriff Rodd took Hary to Camp Douglas Monday.

WILL ERECT NEW SANATORIUM SOON

That the increase in the waiting list at the tubercular hospitals will lead to the early construction of the new state sanatorium in Northern Wisconsin, is the belief of officials. The report of the state board of control on population at the different institutions, just issued shows that there are forty-four on the waiting list for the Wales sanatorium; twenty-seven at Tomahawk Lake camp, and thirty-nine on the waiting list of the county sanatoria. The last legislature appropriated $50,000 for the construction of a tuberculosis hospital in Northern Wisconsin. The increasing waiting lists at the Wales and other institutions suggests that the work may be undertaken sooner than was originally anticipated.

BIG ATTENDANCE AT STYLE SHOW

Rhinelander ladies literally packed the Majestic theater last Thursday afternoon at the second annual style show of the Kolden Dry Goods company. Approximately eleven hundred was the number in attendance at the two shows. Miss Healy, one of the best known fashion critics in the middle west, had supervision of the show.

After a brief motion picture program attractive young ladies came on the stage attired in the newest styles of coats and suits. The garments were the final word in the fall and winter modes for women and the ease and grace with which they were worn by the models set them off to unusual advantage. It may not be amiss to state that the models were Rhinelander girls. They conducted themselves in a manner which would do credit to professionals.

Displays of gowns, dresses, furs and other apparel were shown. The suits for out door winter sports came in for more than ordinary attention.

The beautiful hats worn by the models were from the millinery parlors of Mrs. Nettie Hamilton on Davenport street.

Following the style show there was a pleasing musical entertainment consisting of numbers by the Trumble Twins, Miss Irene Evans and Miss Alice Schliesman.

In every particular the show was successful and the Kolden Dry Goods company feel well repaid for the effort and expense involved in its presentation.
